

ROAST BEEF QUOTED HIGHER AT MARKETS

Dealers Add Five Cents to Last Week's Prices—Fish Lower.

Vegetables on the Whole Are About Stationary—Strawberries Remain at High Figure.

Dealers report good supplies of all kinds of fish on sale in the city markets, and the demand this morning was said to be very good. Few changes, except in the meat and fish markets, are to be noted, the long dry spell in this vicinity having prevented the appearance in the market of many spring vegetables from the nearby gardens. Rhubarb, however, has made its appearance from nearby, and with the good supply has come a drop in price from 8 cents a bunch to 5 cents a bunch.

Strawberries, which should be lower in price, remain firm at from 30 to 40 cents a quart. It is only a question of a few days when they will be coming in quantities from North Carolina and from the vicinity of Norfolk, and will be much lower in price.

The increased supply of shad and herring has caused a lowering of prices on these fish. This morning shad could be bought for 75 cents each, and 90 cents was being asked for exceptionally large and fine fish. Buck shad are quoted at from 25 to 40 cents each and herring at 25 cents a dozen.

The meat dealers report an advance of 4 cents a pound on roast beef, and 25 cents a pound on the cheaper cuts of steaming beef. Pork chops and pork hams also show an advance of a cent or two on the pound.

Eggs, poultry and butter remain unchanged from the prices quoted last week. Eggs range in price from 20 to 30 cents a dozen, and strictly fresh eggs can be bought as low as 25 cents a dozen.

FISH ARE PLENTIFUL.

Prices Today Are About the Same as Last Week.

Receipts of fresh fish of all kinds have been heavy enough at the wharf wholesale market to meet all demands and to keep prices down to the low level of last week. Shad and herring are both more plentiful, and this morning shad sold at 50 cents each, while herring brought 15 to 18 cents each. Herring are quoted less than a cent apiece, the price this morning being 15 to 18 cents. Bluefish, Spanish mackerel and mullets have not been on sale at the wharf for several days, but are on the benches of retailers in up-town markets.

The market this morning was well attended and prices ranged about as follows: Salmon trout, 10 to 12 cents a pound; white perch, large, 6 to 8 cents a pound; small, 4 to 6 cents a pound; rock, 8 to 12 cents a pound; catfish, 2 cents a pound; halibut, 12 cents a pound; cod, 7 cents a pound; flounders, 4 cents a pound; croakers, 12 to 15 cents a barrel; yellow perch, 15 to 20 cents a bunch; white perch, small, 5 to 10 cents a bunch; and catfish, 20 cents a bunch. Hard-shelled crabs are selling at $2 a hundred and are in fairly good demand. The supply of oysters at the wharf market is fair for this late in the season and they are selling at prices ranging from 40 cents to $1 a bushel.
